WE DEFEND YOU AGAINST PALISADES COLLECTION, LLC

The Langel Firm defends consumers against New York debt collection lawsuits brought by Palisades Collection, LLC. In appropriate cases, we will sue Palisades Collection, LLC for violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, and other applicable federal and state-law theories.

Palisades Collection, LLC and its associated debt buyer, Palisades Acquisition XVI, LLC are licensed to collect debts in New York City. They are registered at operating at 210 Sylvan Avenue, Englewood Cliff, New Jersey, 07632.

STATE COURT CASES

An appellate court dismissed a Palisades credit-card lawsuit for failing to produce admissible evidence demonstrating its possession of the account at issue. Palisades was unable to produce a witness with knowledge to cure the hearsay problems inherent in its relied-upon electronic records.* Palisades Collection, LLC v. Kekik, 67 AD3d 29 (4th Dept 2009).

After having sued our client at his mother's address where he has not lived at in 10 years, Palisades froze his bank account while residing in California. We immediately attacked the judgment, with particular emphasis on bad service. Palisades failed to appear a traverse hearing, and as a result, the judgment was vacated and the case dismissed. Palisades Acquisition, XVI, LLC v. Darrel B., 116781/08, Queens Civil Court.

Confirming New York law, spouses are not liable for a spouse's debt absent contractual authority, an appellate court ruled. Palisades failed as a matter of law to prove its breach of contract claim and account stated claim.* Palisades Collection Company, LLC v. Velazquez, 27 Misc. 3d 132(A) (N.Y. Sup.App.Term 2010).

FEDERAL COURT CASES

Palisades was criticized – and its motion to dismiss denied – for filing four jurisdictionally defective lawsuits against an Erie County woman. Judge Skretny rejected Palisades' bona fide error defense finding that simply "keeping track of where venue had already been found to be improper" would bar applicability of that defense.* Curto v. Palisades Collection, LLC, 07-529(S), WDNY.

A Brooklyn judge upheld a negligence theory against Palisades Collection, LLC for placing the wrong woman's address in lawsuit papers, which ultimately resulted in a judgment being placed on her credit report resulting in a denial of a student loan. The court identified Palisades' duty to get the information right, to avoid harm to innocent, similarly situated persons.* Lindor v. Palisades Collection, LLC, et al., 2010 NY Slip op 20517.

... Houslanger & Associates represents law firms, corporations, individuals, banks, credit unions, and collection agencies, among others. Houslanger & Associates has a reputation for successfully collecting outstanding debts. In fact, according to the Consumer Credit Association of Metropolitan New York, Inc., for which Todd Houslanger serves as Board President, many firms larger than Houslanger & Associates turn collection cases over to them due to their high rate of return.

However, as a debt collection firm, Houslanger & Associates is also bound by the rules set forth in the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. Under this law, prohibited actions include contacting a consumer before 8 a.m. or after 9 p.m., using abusive or profane language, using deceptive tactics to collect the debt, and threatening to report false information to credit companies.
